FACEBOOK PAGE

Brethren, over the years it seems we have accumulated at least 3 FB pages. The Elders, under their direction, ask Bro. Raymond Copeland (our Deacon in charge of education) to establish an "official" Facebook page. That page will be used from time to time as a tool for both education and evangelism. When you go to your FB page and look for the "official" FB page for Caverns Road...it will be listed as:

Church of Christ at Caverns Road**

Please, go there and send your friends there when they want news from the church that meets here. Our "Live streaming" will be on this site every Sunday morning in the worship time along with other tools to spread our Lord's gospel. Very soon, our Church's web-page will be back up and running and you will find "links" from it to our FB page and vice-versa. Let's utilize these great avenues of media to spread the Good News about Christ as well as to encourage the brethren here at Caverns Road and through the brotherhood of believers worldwide.

God Bless,

Caverns Road Elders

HOW TO FORGIVE OTHERS

Recently, this question was found in our Question/Answer Box in the Foyer:

How are we, as Christians, to forgive others when they have sinned against us?

Well, this is a very good question! The subject of forgiveness is a study most Christians have difficulty with. In fact, all mankind stands in need of God's forgiveness and the only way we can have forgiveness at all, is through the blood of Christ (Matthew 26:28). We come into contact with that blood when we are baptized into Christ (Acts 2:38; Romans 6:1-11) and then we are continually cleansed by that blood as we walk in the light (I John 1:7).

HOW TO FORGIVE OTHERS

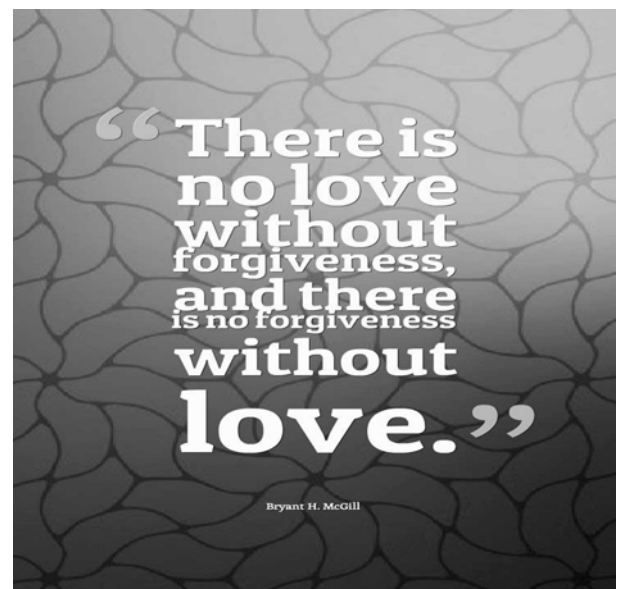

Brethren, confession of sin, repentance, and asking for forgiveness has always been God's condition for granting forgiveness (Leviticus 16:21; I Kings 8:33; II Chronicles 7:14; Psalm 32:5). It should always be our aim to ensure that those who have sinned repent toward God (Acts 20:21) and seek the forgiveness that only He can give. Just like that, we can forgive ourselves knowing God has forgiven us.

In addition, when it comes to our relationship with others, forgiveness should come when the other person genuinely requests, with repentance, forgiveness. When Jesus spoke to Peter about forgiving, He did not place a limit on the number of times we are to forgive our fellow man (Matthew 18:21-22). Jesus did specify that this forgiveness was based upon the repentance and confession of the one asking forgiveness (Luke 17:3-4).

How about holding a grudge against another person? Brethren, we should stand ready to as Jesus was to forgive, Jesus on the cross said, "Father Forgive them" (Luke 23:34). It was the same forgiving attitude Stephen had when he uttered, "Lay not this sin to their charge" as he was stoned to death for preaching the gospel (Acts 7:60). As Christians, we should follow Christ example just as Stephen did (to the point of death) in forgiving---even those who continue to persecute or harm us. Let's not let allow our eternal destination be hindered by our lack of forgiveness. We don't want to stand on the day of judgement holding within our heart non-forgiveness for something that someone did to us in our lives, it just will not be worth it.

Jesus, in teaching His disciples about forgiveness summarized it this way, "For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: but if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" Matthew 6:14-15.
