KUDDOS FOR KIDS KORNER

Our first Terrific Tuesday was a blast last week. The fun began with a story about Gideon, then games, followed by a movie, pizza and more junk food! Everybody went home with a prize after correctly answering questions from the story of Gideon. Thank you, Ms PeggyAnn for the comfortable bean bags. They were the perfect choice for movie viewing.

DON'T WAIT UNTIL IT FREEZES IN JUNE!

Heard a story once of a fellow whose name was Arthur. He was a good man, but had never darkened the door of a church building as far as anyone knew, in his entire life. One day a local Church of Christ preacher and some others from the church came to visit Arthur. You see, he only lived a block away from the building. They tried everything they could think of to persuade Arthur to attend the services of the church. For weeks, the preacher and others offered encouraging words but Arthur did not attend even one service of the church.

Arthur's favorite reply to the members of the church was, "Well, when it freezes in June, then I will go to church."

Well, the years passed and one year, there was an unusually cold spring, and it remained cold into the month of June. In fact, it got so cold during the first part of the month, the temperature dipped to freezing for several nights. Everyone remembered Arthur and thought what he had said. They thought that maybe the spell of cold freezing weather would motivate him to attend worship services.

Well, it finally did! One Sunday, Arthur made his first appearance inside the church building, six men carried him in. He finally made it, but he was lying in a casket instead of sitting in a pew!

Brethren, if you are not a Christian today, don't wait until it freezes in June to become one! Become an obedient follower of Christ today (II Corinthians 6:1-2) and enjoy the loving fellowship than can only be experienced with God's Family.
