LADIES CLASS WILL RESUME THIS TUESDAY 10TH. "LEARNING TO DENY SELF" WILL BE TITLE OF THE BOOK

LET'S GET RID OF THE DRAGONS

There is an old story told of an English “gentleman of the road” (we would call him a hobo), who stopped by a restaurant named the “Saint George and the Dragon.” Because he was hungry, he knocked at the back door and asked if he might have a bite of some leftovers to eat.

A very stern lady looked at him eye to eye and said, “I will not give you even a crumb—you look fit—get a job, you bum!” And to emphasize her disgust, she slammed the door in the hobo’s face.

The shabbily dressed Englishman stood looking at the establishment’s sign for a minute and then knocked again. The door opened and the same stern lady asked in a hateful voice, “Well, what is it you want now?”

“I was just wondering,” the hobo said, “could I please talk with Saint George this time?”

What makes the dragon appear in us? Is it petty problems, real or imagined slights, jealousy, insults, someone cheating us—someone rubbing us the wrong way? Do we truly like ourselves when the dragon appears? More than likely, we do not.

There is an answer—for slaying our dragons in the Bible, found in Romans 12:10,

“Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another.”

Brethren, when this formula is used, our dragons will disappear every time! May God help each of to consider our neighbors in this life important enough to show them the example of Saints and not Dragons.

God Bless,

john
